

Give Health Services to Pakistan Flood Victims (#6047)

One of the patients suffering from skin disease during the early flood missions. Skin diseases continue to be one of the commonest ailments encountered by our medical teams.

The homeless continued to live in temporary shelters as these.